

Bob Christmas, PhD.

DO YOU NEED HELP, WRITING & EDITING?
ANALYSIS, STRATEGIC PLANNING, CHANGE
ARE YOU LOOKING FOR A SPEAKER?

Author, scholar, consultant, passionate speaker and social justice advocate, police professional with expertise in sex trafficking and exploitation, community engagement and crime prevention. An advocate for social reform, Bob writes and speaks on policing trends, community collaboration, collective impact, and governance.

Experience, education, and scholarship in public service and peace and conflict studies gives Bob unique tools for improving public safety, conflict analysis and transformation, governance, and systemic change.

AUTHORSHIP:

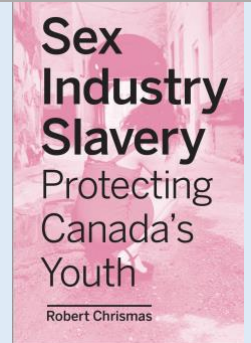

*Canadian Policing in the 21st Century:
A Frontline Officer on Challenges and Changes.*

Montreal, Canada: McGill-Queen's University Press (2014).

Sex Industry Slavery: Protecting Canada's Youth

Toronto, Canada: University of Toronto Press (2020).

SEE BOB'S PUBLICATIONS, BLOG, TESTIMONIALS, UPCOMING EVENTS AND MORE AT:
Webpage: BChristmas.com

SPEAKING & WORKSHOP TOPICS:

Reducing sex trafficking & exploitation
Restorative justice and reconciliation
Evidence based policing and justice
Collective impact/community engagement
Globalization and social responsibility
Emergency and risk management
Getting published- how to do it

Missing and Murdered in Canada
Missing persons- Canada's challenge
Policing and community engagement
Crime prevention and social development
The power of stories in social change
Workplace investigations

AVAILABLE FOR POLICY ANALYSIS, WRITING AND EDITING

CONTACT BOB AT:

robertwchristmas@hotmail.com

